

Meet Us in St. Louis! Nov. 17-18 National Broom Mop & Brush Meeting

Connect. Listen. Learn. Get Registered.

Last year we extended an invitation to the brush industry to join us and we hope to build on that in 2016. With a new president elected just 10 days before we meet, the 2016 conference promises to be a key opportunity to talk about what that may mean for the industry. Manufacturers and suppliers will meet at the Renaissance St. Louis Airport Hotel Nov. 17-18 to discuss current market trends in the rapidly changing floor care and related business segments. The annual gathering offers a unique opportunity to network with a variety of industry contacts. Your participation is critical to the future of the floor care market and no other meeting offers you the perspective that this gathering presents. Your business deserves to have the benefits that this annual meeting affords you. The minimal participation fee and time investment may be the best value available that can directly impact your strategic planning for 2017 and beyond. We hope to see you! Please share this flyer with your professional colleagues.
